

Creative exhibition

On Wednesday 20th June, 30 schools from across South East Wales displayed the best of their Art, Product Design and textiles work for pupils, teachers, parents and lecturers to see.

King Henry VIII Art and D&T departments took along 20 students work to display amongst the other 30 schools. There was a range of GCSE, AS and A level work and there were many comments from people who attended the exhibition stating that the level of work was fantastic and shows the hard work and talent of pupils from King Henry VIII.
